PROXY STATEMENT
FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

TO BE HELD ON MAY 12, 2003
-----

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed form of proxy are being furnished commencing on or about April 11, 2003, in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors (the "Board of Directors" or the "Board") of Guess?, Inc. (the "Company") of proxies in the enclosed form for use at the 2003 annual meeting of shareholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held at the Le Meridien Hotel, 465 South La Cienega Boulevard, Beverly Hills, California 90048 on Monday, May 12, 2003, at 10:00 a.m., pacific time, and any adjournments or postponements thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

In connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of proxies for use at the Annual Meeting, the Board of Directors has designated Carlos Alberini and Deborah Siegel to vote shares represented by such proxies. Any proxy given pursuant to such solicitation and received in time for the Annual Meeting and not revoked will be voted as specified in such proxy. If no instructions are given, proxies will be voted FOR the election of the nominees named below the caption "Proposal No. 1: Election of Class I Directors," FOR the termination of the Amended and Restated Shareholders' Agreement, dated as of August 8, 1996 (the "Shareholders' Agreement") as described under the caption "Proposal No. 2: Termination of Shareholders' Agreement," and FOR the appointment of KPMG LLP as independent certified public accountants of the Company for the year ending December 31, 2003, as described under the caption "Proposal No. 3: Ratification of Selection of Independent Certified Public Accountants." Any proxy may be revoked by delivering written notice of such revocation to the Secretary of the Company at any time prior to the voting thereof or by delivering a later dated proxy to the Secretary of the Company at any time prior to the voting thereof, or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the instructions discussed in this Proxy Statement.

This solicitation is made by mail on behalf of the Board of Directors. Costs of the solicitation will be borne by the Company. Further solicitation of proxies may be made by telephone, telegraph, facsimile or personal interview by the directors, officers and employees of the Company and its affiliates, who will not receive additional compensation for the solicitation. The Company will reimburse banks, brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable expenses incurred by them in sending proxy materials to shareholders.

Only holders of record of the Company's common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), at the close of business on April 4, 2003, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the close of business on April 4, 2003, there were [ ] shares of Common Stock outstanding. Each share of Common Stock entitles the record holder thereof to one vote on all matters properly brought before the Annual Meeting.

Brokers holding shares for beneficial owners must vote those shares according to the specific instructions they receive from the owners. If instructions are not received, brokers may vote the shares at their discretion, depending upon the type of proposals involved. "Broker non-votes" result when brokers are precluded by the rules of the New York Stock Exchange from exercising their discretion on certain types of proposals. Brokers have discretionary authority to vote on the proposals being submitted. The Inspector of Election will treat broker non-votes as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but not as shares present and voting on such proposal, thus having no effect on the outcome of such proposal.

Each director will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. Shareholders may not cumulate their votes. Accordingly, abstentions or broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the election of the Class I directors.

The favorable vote of a majority of votes cast will be required to approve the termination of the Shareholders' Agreement and to ratify the selection of KPMG LLP. Accordingly, abstentions or broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the vote on these proposals.

The Board of Directors knows of no matters to come before the Annual Meeting other than the matters referred to in this Proxy Statement. If, however, any matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, it is the intention of each of the persons named in the accompanying proxy to vote such proxies in accordance with such person's discretionary authority to act in such person's best judgment.

The principal executive offices of the Company are located at 1444 South Alameda Street, Los Angeles, California 90021.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Pursuant to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the Board of Directors is divided into three classes of directors serving staggered terms (Classes I, II and III). One class of directors is elected at each annual meeting of shareholders for a three-year term and will hold office until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. The Company's Bylaws currently authorize a Board of Directors consisting of not less than three nor more than fifteen directors. The Board of Directors currently consists of seven members of which Carlos Alberini and Alice Kane are Class I directors, Paul Marciano and Anthony Chidoni are Class II directors and Maurice Marciano, Howard Socol and Howard Weitzman are Class III directors.

PROPOSAL NO. 1: ELECTION OF CLASS I DIRECTORS (ITEM 1 ON PROXY CARD)

At the Annual Meeting, two Class I directors are to be elected to serve for a term to expire at the 2006 annual meeting of shareholders. The nominees for these positions are Carlos Alberini and Alice Kane (the "Class I Nominees"). Mr. Alberini is the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer. Ms. Kane is not employed by, or affiliated with, the Company. Each of the Class I Nominees has consented to being named in this Proxy Statement and has agreed to serve as a member of the Board of Directors if elected. Information regarding the Class I Nominees and the continuing directors whose terms expire in 2004 and 2005 is set forth under the heading "Directors and Executive Officers" beginning on page 12.

The Class I directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. Shareholders may not cumulate their votes. Accordingly, abstentions or broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the election of the Class I directors. The accompanying proxy will be voted FOR the election of the Class I Nominees unless contrary instructions are given. IF THE CLASS I NOMINEES ARE UNABLE TO SERVE, WHICH IS NOT ANTICIPATED, THE PERSONS NAMED AS PROXIES INTEND TO VOTE FOR SUCH OTHER PERSON OR PERSONS AS THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS MAY DESIGNATE. IN NO EVENT WILL THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THE PROXIES BE VOTED FOR MORE THAN TWO CLASS I DIRECTORS AT THE ANNUAL MEETING. UNLESS INSTRUCTED TO THE CONTRARY IN THE PROXY, THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THE PROXIES WILL BE VOTED FOR THE ELECTION OF THE CLASS I NOMINEES NAMED ABOVE.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR EACH OF THE CLASS I NOMINEES.

PROPOSAL NO. 2: TERMINATION OF SHAREHOLDERS' AGREEMENT

(ITEM 2 ON PROXY CARD)

On August 8, 1996, the Company entered into the Shareholders' Agreement with the following parties: the Maurice Marciano Trust (1995 Restatement); the Paul Marciano Trust dated February 20, 1986; the Armand Marciano Trust dated February 20, 1986; the Maurice Marciano 1996 Grantor Retained Annuity Trust; the Paul Marciano 1996 Grantor Retained Annuity Trust; and the Armand Marciano 1996 Grantor Retained Annuity Trust. Each of the foregoing parties or its successor in interest is an affiliate of either Maurice Marciano, Director, Co-Chairman of the Board and Co-Chief Executive Officer of the Company, Paul Marciano, Director, Co-Chairman of the Board and Co-Chief Executive Officer of the Company, or Armand Marciano, Senior Executive Vice President and Assistant Secretary of the Company (collectively, the "Affiliated Shareholders"). As described under "Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management," each of the Affiliated Shareholders is also a significant shareholder of the Company.

Pursuant to the Shareholders' Agreement, the Affiliated Shareholders agreed to vote their shares of Common Stock to elect each of the Affiliated Shareholders, or a single designee of any such person (if such designee is reasonably acceptable to the other persons), to the Board of Directors of the Company. The Shareholders' Agreement further provides that each of the Affiliated Shareholders has granted to the affiliates of the other Affiliated Shareholders and to the Company rights of first refusal with respect to the transfer of any shares of Common Stock (with certain limited exceptions). The Affiliated Shareholders and the Company now propose to terminate the Shareholders' Agreement in all respects, which would mean, among other things, that the Affiliated Shareholders would no longer be obligated to first offer their shares of Common Stock to the other Affiliated Shareholders and to the Company prior to making any sales of such stock to third parties.

The termination of the Shareholders' Agreement is not required to be submitted to a vote of shareholders, but the Company is nevertheless submitting the matter for your vote in light of the interest of the Affiliated Shareholders in the termination of the agreement. If the termination of the Shareholders' Agreement is not approved by the shareholders, the Company does not intend to terminate the agreement.

Approval of this Proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast, in person or by proxy, at the Annual Meeting by the holders of shares entitled to vote thereon. Accordingly, abstentions or broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the vote on the proposal. Unless instructed to the contrary in the proxy, the shares represented by the proxies will be voted FOR the proposal to approve the termination of the Shareholders' Agreement.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL TO TERMINATE THE SHAREHOLDERS' AGREEMENT. ---

PROPOSAL NO. 3: RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS
(ITEM 3 ON PROXY CARD)

The firm of KPMG LLP ("KPMG"), the Company's independent certified public accountants for the year ended December 31, 2002, was selected by the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee, to act in such capacity for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003, subject to ratification by the shareholders. There are no affiliations between the Company and KPMG, its partners, associates or employees, other than those which pertain to the (i) engagement of KPMG as independent certified public accountants for the Company in the previous year and (ii) engagement of KPMG's Internal Audit Group as internal auditors for the Company commencing in October 2000. KPMG has served as the Company's independent public accountants since 1990. Even if KPMG's appointment is ratified by the shareholders, the Board of Directors may, at its discretion, appoint a new independent accounting firm if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. We expect a representative of KPMG to be present at the Annual Meeting to respond to appropriate questions and to make such statements as he or she may desire.

The favorable vote of a majority of votes cast regarding the proposal is required to ratify the selection of KPMG. Accordingly, abstentions or broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the vote on the proposal. Unless instructed to the contrary in the proxy, the shares represented by the proxies will be voted FOR the proposal to ratify the selection of KPMG to serve as independent certified public accountants for the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF KPMG LLP.

RELATIONSHIP WITH INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The firm of KPMG has served as the Company's independent auditors since 1990 and served as the Company's independent auditor for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002. As stated in Proposal No. 3, the Board of Directors has selected KPMG to serve as our independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003.

Audit services performed by KPMG for fiscal 2002 consisted of the examination of the Company's financial statements, services related to filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and services related to the Company's internal audit. All fees paid to KPMG were reviewed and considered for independence by the Audit Committee.

FISCAL 2002 AUDIT FIRM FEE SUMMARY

During fiscal year 2002, we retained our principal auditor, KPMG, to provide services in the following categories and amounts:

	2002 (dollars in thousands) ----	2001 (dollars in thousands) ----
Audit fees.....	$ 498	$ 545
	=====	=====
Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees (1).....	-	-
	=====	=====
All Other Fees
Audit related fees (2).....	$ 240	$ 719
Tax fees.....	323	565
Other non-audit services .....	-	-
	-----	-----
Total all other fees.....	$ 563	$ 1,284

- (1) Financial information systems design and implementation consisted of consulting for enterprise-wide financial information systems.
- (2) Audit related fees consisted principally of internal audit services and issuances of consents.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services provided by KPMG is compatible with maintaining KPMG's independence. Before KPMG was engaged by the Company to render audit services, the engagement was approved by the Company's Audit Committee.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. We reviewed and discussed with management the audited financial statements contained in the Company's fiscal year 2002 annual report. Also, we reviewed with KPMG, who is responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of our audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, their judgments as to the quality and acceptability of our accounting principles and any other matters that we are required to discuss under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, we have discussed with KPMG its independence from management and the Company including matters set forth in the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 pertaining to communications with Audit Committees.

We discussed with KPMG the overall scope and plans of their audits. We met with KPMG, as the Company's independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss results of their examinations, their evaluations of our internal controls, and the overall quality of our financial reporting at each of our eight meetings in 2002.

We also relied on the services of KPMG for the internal audit function. We engaged KPMG for the internal audit function in 2000 only after carefully reviewing the quality of such services being offered by other service providers. We are of the opinion that the company's utilization of KPMG's internal audit outsourcing services has not impaired the independence of KPMG as the company's external auditor. Nonetheless, consistent with new auditor independence rules, including those related to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, and consistent with KPMG's own policies, we began a transition of the internal audit function away from KPMG during 2003 and we intend for this transition to be complete by the end of the second quarter of 2003.

Relying on the reviews and discussions referred to above, we recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors has approved, that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, for filing with the SEC.

By the Audit Committee,

Anthony Chidoni, Chairman
 Alice Kane
 Howard Socol
 Howard Weitzman

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company is engaged in various transactions with entities affiliated with trusts for the respective benefit of Maurice, Paul and Armand Marciano and certain of their children (the "Marciano Trusts"). The Company believes that the arrangements involving each of the companies in which the Marciano Trusts have an investment and related party transactions discussed below were entered into on terms no less favorable to the Company than could have been obtained from an unaffiliated third party.

LICENSE AGREEMENTS AND LICENSEE TRANSACTIONS

On September 28, 1990, the Company entered into a license agreement with Charles David of California ("Charles David"). The Marciano Trusts and Nathalie Marciano (the spouse of Maurice Marciano) together own 50% of Charles David, and the remaining 50% is owned by the father-in-law of Maurice Marciano. The license agreement grants Charles David the rights to manufacture worldwide and distribute worldwide (except Japan and certain European countries) for men, women and some children, leather and rubber footwear which bear the Company trademark. The license also includes related shoe care products and accessories. Gross royalties earned by the Company under such license agreement for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, and for the first quarter ended March 29, 2003, were $2.0 million and $0.8 million, respectively. Additionally, the Company purchased $5.7 million and $2.0 million, respectively, of products from Charles David for resale in the Company's retail stores during the same periods. The license agreement was renewed in 2002 and will expire in 2008.

CONSULTING ARRANGEMENT

Subsequent to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, the Company agreed to pay Bryan Isaacs $42,000 in connection with consulting services provided by him to the Company during 2001. The Company paid this amount to Mr. Isaacs in February 2002. Mr. Isaacs term as a director of the Company expired at the 2002 annual meeting of shareholders.

LEASES

The Company leases manufacturing, warehouse and administrative facilities from partnerships affiliated with the Marciano Trusts and certain of its affiliates. There were three leases in effect at December 31, 2002, two of which expire in July 2008, and one of which expires in February 2006. The total lease payments to these limited partnerships are currently $268,939 per month.

Aggregate lease payments under leases in effect for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, and for the first quarter ended March 29, 2003, were $53.1 million and $[___] million, respectively.

During 2002, Mr. Alberini lived in a residence owned by a trust controlled by Mr. Maurice Marciano. The Company paid $130,000 as rent on the residence and Mr. Alberini recognized such amount as compensation. Beginning in January 2003, Mr. Alberini began paying rent on the residence.

SHAREHOLDERS' AGREEMENT

Upon consummation of the Company's initial public offering, the Company entered into the Shareholders' Agreement with affiliates of the Affiliated Shareholders. Pursuant to the Shareholders' Agreement, the Affiliated Shareholders agreed to vote their shares of Common Stock to elect each of the Affiliated Shareholders, or a single designee of any such person (if such designee is reasonably acceptable to the other persons), to the Board of Directors of the Company. The Shareholders' Agreement further provides that each of the Affiliated Shareholders has granted to the affiliates of the other Affiliated Shareholders and to the Company rights of first refusal with respect to the transfer of any shares of Common Stock (with certain limited exceptions).

The Armand Marciano Trust dated February 10, 1986 (the "Armand Marciano Trust") entered into letter agreements dated February 10, 2003 with the Company and affiliates of the other Affiliated Shareholders which amended certain terms of both the Shareholders' Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement dated August 1, 1996 (the "Registration Rights Agreement") among the Company and the Affiliated Shareholders. In particular, the Company and the other Affiliated Shareholders each waived their right of first refusal as to sales by the Armand Marciano Trust of up to 440,000 shares of the Common Stock. Furthermore, the parties agreed that, until effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by the Company pursuant to a November 4, 2002 demand made to the Company by the Armand Marciano Trust in accordance with the Registration Rights Agreement, the Armand Marciano Trust may sell Common Stock to third parties upon two days right of first refusal notice to the Company and the other Affiliated Shareholders. Finally, the agreement provided that, if the Armand Marciano Trust sells any Common Stock before the registration statement becomes effective, the Company will include in the registration statement up to five of the purchasers as additional selling shareholders, and will consider in good faith including any other purchasers.

INDEBTEDNESS OF MANAGEMENT

Pursuant to his employment agreement, on March 22, 2001, the Company loaned Carlos Alberini $1,000,000 for the purchase of his primary residence in Los Angeles (the "Relocation Loan"). The Relocation Loan is secured by a second deed of trust on the residence and bears interest at the rate of seven percent (7%) per annum; provided that no interest shall accrue during Mr. Alberini's employment with the Company. As of December 31, 2002, there was a principal balance outstanding on the Relocation Loan of $915,822.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

On approximately January 15, 1999, UNITE filed an unfair labor practice charge against us, alleging that attorney Dennis Hersheve violated Section 8(a)(1) of the National Labor Relations Act ("the Act") by questioning our employee Maria Perez about her union activities at the deposition he conducted in her workers' compensation case. Mr. Hersheve represents Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, our workers' compensation insurance carrier. GUESS? investigated the charge and responded to it on March 10, 1999. The NLRB issued a complaint on part of the charge on October 14, 1999, and we filed an answer on October 21, 1999. On July 6, 2000, the complaint was dismissed in its entirety. The NLRB appealed the decision and both sides submitted briefs in September of 2000. We are awaiting a decision on the appeal.

On June 9, 1999, we commenced a lawsuit in the Los Angeles County Superior Court against Kyle Kirkland, Kirkland Messina LLC, and CKM Securities (collectively "Kirkland") for tortious interference, unfair competition, fraud and related claims. This action arises out of alleged misrepresentations and omissions of material fact made by Kirkland in connection with the operations and financial performance of Pour Le Bebe, Inc., a former licensee ("PLB"). Following Kirkland's efforts to compel arbitration of this matter, on March 29, 2000, the California Court of Appeal determined that the action will proceed in court. After unsuccessfully requesting reconsideration before the appellate court, Kirkland sought review before the California Supreme Court. Kirkland's petition for review to the California Supreme Court was denied on July 12, 2000. In September 2002, the parties agreed to a settlement and the suit was dismissed.

On March 28, 2000 a complaint was filed against us in San Diego County Superior Court entitled Snodgrass v. Guess?, Inc. and GUESS? Retail, Inc. The complaint alleged that certain current and former store management employees were incorrectly classified as exempt from overtime laws. The Company, without admitting or acknowledging any wrongdoing, tentatively settled the matter on September 28, 2001. The court granted final approval to the settlement on May 10, 2002. The Company does not expect any changes to its ongoing cost structure as a result of this settlement.

On May 4, 2000, a complaint was filed against the Company and Mr. Paul Marciano in the Los Angeles Superior Court - Michel Benasra v. Paul Marciano and Guess?, Inc. The complaint grows out of the arbitration between the Company and PLB, wherein the Company was awarded $7.7 million. The plaintiff, the President of PLB, alleges that defendants made defamatory statements about him during the arbitration. Plaintiff seeks general damages of $50,000,000 and unspecified punitive damages. We moved to compel arbitration of this matter, or alternatively, to strike the action under the state's anti-SLAPP (Strategic Litigation Against Public Participation) statute. The motion to compel arbitration was denied and that ruling was affirmed on appeal. On May 15, 2002, our motion to strike the case was granted.

On January 30, 2001, Guess?, Inc., Maurice Marciano, Armand Marciano, Paul Marciano, and Brian Fleming were named as defendants in a securities class action entitled David Osher v. Guess?, Inc., et al., filed in the United States District Court for the Central District of California. Seven additional class actions have been filed in the Central District, naming the same defendants: Robert M. Nuckols v. Guess?, Inc. et al., Brett Dreyfuss v. Guess?, Inc. et al., both filed February 1, 2001; Jerry Sloan v. Guess?, Inc., et al., filed February 6, 2001; Jerry Byrd v. Guess?, Inc., et al; filed February 13, 2001; Patrick and Kristine Liska v. Guess?, Inc., et al, filed February 14, 2001; Darrin Wegman v. Guess?, Inc., et al., filed February 22, 2001; and Rosie Gindie v. Guess?, Inc., et al., filed February 22, 2001. All eight complaints purport to state claims under Section 10(b) and 20(a) and Rule 10b-5 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and allege that defendants made materially false and misleading statements relating to the Company's inventory and financial condition during the class period. In Osher, Nuckols, Byrd, Wegman and Sloan, the class period is February 14, 2000 through January 26, 2001; in Dreyfuss, Liska and Gindie the class period is February 14, 2000 through November 9, 2000. On April 25, 2001, the court entered an order consolidating all of the eight class actions, captioned In re Guess, Inc. Securities Litigation. The lead plaintiff for the class is the Policeman and Fireman's Retirement System of the City of Detroit. On July 9, 2001, the plaintiff filed a consolidated amended class action complaint. Our motion to dismiss was granted, with leave to amend, on November 29, 2001. On March 14, 2002, the court issued orders dismissing all eight class action cases without prejudice.

On March 15, 2001, a complaint was filed by Susan Goldman, derivatively on behalf of nominal defendant Guess?, Inc. against Bryan Isaacs, Alice Kane, Robert Davis, Armand Marciano, Paul Marciano, Maurice Marciano, Howard Socol and Guess?, Inc. in the Court of Chancery for the State of Delaware. The complaint alleges misappropriation of corporate information, insider trading and other purported breaches of fiduciary duty by the Company and its Board of Directors. On February 12, 2002, the court granted plaintiff's motion to dismiss this action without prejudice.

On May 7, 2001, a complaint was filed by Suzanne Bell, derivatively on behalf of nominal defendant Guess?, Inc. against Maurice Marciano, Paul Marciano, Armand Marciano, Alice Kane, Robert Davis, Howard Socol, Bryan Isaacs and Brian Fleming, in the United States District Court for the Central District of California. The complaint alleges corporate mismanagement, insider trading and other purported breaches of fiduciary duty by the Company and its Board of Directors.

On July 5, 2001, the court stayed the action pursuant to stipulation of the parties pending the outcome of the Goldman derivative action. As a result of the dismissal of the Goldman derivative action on February 12, 2002, the stay expired. The parties subsequently stipulated to a dismissal which was approved by the court on March 28, 2002.

Most major corporations, particularly those operating retail businesses, become involved from time to time in a variety of employment-related claims and other matters incidental to their business in addition to those described above. In the opinion of our management, the resolution of any of these pending incidental matters is not expected to have a material adverse effect on our results of operations or financial condition; however, we cannot predict the outcome of these matters.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

The Company has entered into individual employment agreements (the "Executive Employment Agreements") with each of Maurice Marciano, Paul Marciano and Armand Marciano (the "Executives"). The initial term of the Executive Employment Agreements began on August 13, 1996 (the "Effective Date") and terminated on the third anniversary of the Effective Date. However, the Executive Employment Agreements automatically extend after the initial term for successive one-year terms, unless notice not to extend is given by either party at least 90 days prior to the end of the then current term. No notice has been given. The Executive Employment Agreements provide for an annual base salary of $900,000, $900,000 and $650,000 for Maurice Marciano, Paul Marciano and Armand Marciano, respectively, which may be increased by the Compensation Committee based on annual reviews. In addition, the Executive Employment Agreements provide for annual bonuses to be determined in accordance with the Company's Annual Incentive Bonus Plan, with a minimum expected target bonus equal to 100% of base salary. Commencing on the expiration of the term of an Executive Employment Agreement, or earlier should an Executive Employment Agreement be terminated other than due to the Executive's death or for cause (as defined in the Executive Employment Agreements), the Company and Maurice Marciano, Paul Marciano or Armand Marciano, as the case may be, will enter into a two-year consulting agreement under which such Executive will render certain consulting services for which the Company will pay an annual consulting fee equal to 50% of such Executive's annual base salary, as in effect immediately prior to the commencement of the consulting period. In addition, each Executive is entitled to certain fringe benefits, including full Company-paid health and life insurance for himself and his immediate family during his lifetime. If any of the Executives is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason (as such terms are defined in the Executive Employment Agreements), then such Executive will receive as severance his then current base salary and annual target bonus for the remainder of his term of employment. The Executive will also continue to participate in Company-sponsored health and life insurance, and other fringe benefit plans and programs during the severance period. Each Executive Employment Agreement further provides that upon the death or permanent disability of the Executive, such Executive (or his beneficiary) will receive a pro rata portion of his annual target bonus for the year in which the Executive's death or permanent disability occurs. The Executive Employment Agreements also include certain noncompetition, nonsolicitation and confidentiality provisions.

In November 2000, Carlos Alberini entered into an employment agreement with the Company (the "Employment Agreement") for a term commencing on December 11, 2000 through December 31, 2003 (the "Term"). The Employment Agreement will automatically extend after the Term for successive one-year terms unless notice not to extend is given by either party at least 180 days prior to the end of the then current term. The Employment Agreement provides for an annual base salary of $650,000, which may be increased by the Compensation Committee based on annual reviews. In addition, the Employment Agreement provides for annual bonuses to be determined in accordance with the Company's Annual Incentive Bonus Plan, with the minimum expected target bonus to be 70% of base salary, up to a maximum bonus of 120% of base salary if the applicable stretch performance goals (as defined in the Bonus Plan) are met. The Employment Agreement also provides for a guaranteed bonus of $260,000 payable in two prorated installments (December 31, 2000 and December 11, 2001) provided that Mr. Alberini is employed with the Company through the applicable installment date (the "Guaranteed Bonus"). Mr. Alberini subsequently waived his right to receive the Guaranteed Bonus due to him in 2001. On December 11, 2000, Mr. Alberini was granted 205,680 restricted shares of Common Stock under the 1996 Equity Incentive Plan which shares vest as follows: 105,680 shares on January 1, 2002, 50,000 shares on January 1, 2003 and 50,000 shares on January 1, 2004. He was also granted a stock option for 500,000 shares of Common Stock under the Company's 1996 Equity Incentive Plan with an exercise price equal to the closing price on December 11, 2000 and which vests in five equal annual installments beginning on December 31, 2001. Mr. Alberini is eligible to participate in the Company's 401(k) Plan and is entitled to other similar benefits provided to senior executives. If Mr. Alberini's employment is terminated by the Company at any time other than for his death, disability or for cause or if Mr. Alberini terminates his employment for good reason (as such terms are defined in the Employment Agreement), the Company and Mr. Alberini will enter into a consulting agreement for up to eighteen months under which Mr. Alberini will render consulting services for which the Company will pay an annualized consulting fee equal to Mr. Alberini's base salary, as in effect prior to the commencement of the consulting period. In addition, Mr. Alberini will be entitled to receive (i) any benefits to which he would otherwise be entitled with respect to the Relocation Loan; (ii) an amount equal to the portion of any Guaranteed Bonus for the expired portion of the fiscal year in which his termination date occurs; (iii) accelerated vesting of the restricted stock; and (iv) continuing vesting of any then outstanding options over the consulting period. The Employment Agreement further provides for certain payments upon a change in control or Non-Renewal Notice (as such terms are defined in the Employment Agreement). The Employment Agreement also includes certain noncompetition, nonsolicitation and confidentiality provisions. In addition, the Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Alberini is eligible for reimbursement by the Company for relocation expenses and assistance with respect to the purchase of a primary residence in Los Angeles.

On October 22, 2001, the Company extended an offer of employment to Frederick Silny (the "Silny Letter"). Pursuant to the Silny Letter, Mr. Silny receives a base salary of $300,000 per year. In addition, the Silny Letter provides for annual bonuses to be determined in accordance with the Company's Annual Incentive Bonus Plan. Pursuant to the Silny Letter, Mr. Silny was granted incentive stock options to purchase 71,685 shares of Common Stock and non-qualified stock options to purchase 8,315 shares of Common Stock under the 1996 Equity Incentive Plan which vest over a period of four years beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant. In addition, Mr. Silny was granted 10,000 shares of restricted Common Stock under the 1996 Equity Incentive Plan which vest over a three year period beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant. The Silny Letter also provides for a severance payment in an amount equal to six months of base salary and health and disability benefits, upon termination of Mr. Silny's employment by the Company for reasons other than for cause. The amount of the severance payment that would be due to Mr. Silny is also subject to offset equal to any amounts that he earns from other employment during the period ending six months after his termination.

On August 16, 2002, the Company extended an offer of employment to Nancy Shachtman (the "Shachtman Letter"). In addition, Ms. Shachtman was granted 40,000 shares of restricted Common Stock under the 1996 Equity Incentive Plan which vest over a three year period beginning on the first anniversary of the date of grant. The Shachtman Letter also provides for a car allowance of up to $8,000 per year.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Directors who are employees of the Company receive no additional compensation for serving on the Board of Directors.

During the 2002 fiscal year, directors who were not employees of the Company were entitled to receive an annual retainer fee of $20,000 for their services and attendance fees of $1,500 per Board meeting and $1,000 (committee chairman) or $750 (committee member) per committee meeting attended. Annual retainer fees may, however, be waived in exchange for non-qualified options to purchase a number of shares of Common Stock equal in value to 2 1/2 times that of the fees so waived. The aggregate exercise price of these options is equal to the closing market price of the Common Stock on the day of the grant. The options will become exercisable in 25% installments on the first day of each of the four fiscal quarters following the date of grant. Pursuant to the Company's Amended and Restated 1996 Non-Employee Directors' Stock Option Plan ("1996 Plan"), if there is a change in control of the Company (as defined in the 1996 Plan), all options become immediately exercisable. All directors are reimbursed for expenses incurred in connection with attendance at Board or committee meetings.

In addition, pursuant to the 1996 Plan, each non-employee director of the Company, upon joining the Board of Directors, will receive non-qualified options to purchase 10,000 shares of Common Stock and will receive non-qualified options to purchase an additional 3,000 shares of Common Stock on the first day of each fiscal year thereafter. The exercise price of such options will be equal to 85% of the fair market value of the Common Stock on the respective date of grant and the term of the options will be for ten years. The options will become exercisable in 25% installments on each of the first four anniversaries of the date of grant, provided that the options will immediately become exercisable in full upon the occurrence of a change in control of the Company. Further, pursuant to the 1996 Plan, each non-employee director of the Company, upon joining the Board of Directors, received 1,500 shares of Common Stock, and is entitled to receive similar grants of stock on the first business day of each calendar year thereafter. There were two new directors appointed or elected during the 2002 fiscal year.

In March 2002, the Board of Directors approved a new outside director compensation plan (the "New Director Compensation Plan") which took effect at the 2002 annual meeting of shareholders for all continuing directors and for any newly elected or appointed directors after that meeting. Under the New Director Compensation Plan directors who were not employees of the Company ("Non-Employee Directors") are entitled to receive an annual retainer fee of $30,000, plus $5,000 annual retainer for each chair of each committee, for their services and attendance fees of $1,500 per Board meeting and $750 per committee member per committee meeting attended. Annual retainer fees may, however, be waived in exchange for non-qualified options to purchase a number of shares of Common Stock equal in value to 2 1/2 times that of the fees so waived. The aggregate exercise price of these options is equal to the closing market price of the Common Stock on the day of the grant. The options will become exercisable in 25% installments on the first day of each of the four fiscal quarters following the date of grant. Pursuant to the 1996 Plan, if there is a change in control of the Company (as defined in the 1996 Plan), all options become immediately exercisable. Further, under the New Director Compensation Plan, pursuant to the 1996 Plan, each Non-Employee Director of the Company will receive 2,000 shares of restricted Common Stock that vest in full on the earlier of the second anniversary of the date of issuance or on the last day of such Non-Employee Director's term if such terms is served in full. In addition, each Non-Employee Director is entitled to receive similar grants of restricted stock on the first business day of each calendar year thereafter. All Non-Employee Directors are reimbursed for expenses incurred in connection with attendance at Board or committee meetings.

In addition, under the New Director Compensation Plan and pursuant to the 1996 Plan, each Non-Employee Director of the Company, upon joining the Board of Directors, will receive non-qualified options to purchase 12,000 shares of Common Stock and will receive non-qualified options to purchase an additional 7,500 shares of Common Stock on the first day of each fiscal year thereafter. The exercise price of such options will be equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock on the respective date of grant and the term of the options will be for ten years. The options will become exercisable in 25% installments on each of the first four anniversaries of the date of grant, provided that the options will immediately become exercisable in full upon the occurrence of a change in control of the Company. Further, pursuant to the 1996 Plan, each Non-Employee Director of the Company, upon joining the Board of Directors, will receive 2,000 shares of restricted Common Stock which vest in full on the earlier of the second anniversary of the date of issuance or on the last day of such Non-Employee Director's term if such term is served in full.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The members of the Compensation Committee during 2002 were Mr. Weitzman, as Chairman, Mr. Chidoni, Ms. Kane and Mr. Socol. None of the executive officers of the Company served as a member of the compensation committee (or other board committee performing equivalent functions or, in the absence of any such committee, the entire board of directors) of another entity during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

No member of the Compensation Committee is an employee or a former officer of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The report of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors with respect to compensation in fiscal 2002 is as follows:

COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY

The initial framework of compensation paid to the Company's executive officers was determined at the time of the IPO. Based on discussions with the Company's investment bankers and an independent compensation consultant and based on comparisons with other companies in the textile industry, the Board of Directors established ranges of salary, bonus and stock option compensation for its executive officers. The Company established a Compensation Committee during 1997 which now has responsibilities over the Company's formal policies for executive compensation. In its hiring practices, the Company seeks to obtain the services of the most highly qualified individuals in the industry, and has provided compensation accordingly.

COMPONENTS OF COMPENSATION

The principal components of executive officer compensation are generally as follows:

Base Salary. The base salary of certain of the Named Executive Officers is fixed pursuant to the terms of their respective Employment Agreements. See "Employment Agreements."

Annual Performance Bonus. Annual bonuses are payable to the Company's executive officers under the Company's Annual Incentive Bonus Plan (the "Bonus Plan") based on the Company's achievement of certain pre-set corporate financial performance targets established for the fiscal year. The Company failed to meet the Bonus Plan's financial targets for the 2002 fiscal year; accordingly, no bonus was payable under the Bonus Plan with respect to fiscal 2002. Ms. Shachtman did receive a discretionary bonus of $50,000 for 2002. See "Executive Compensation - Summary Compensation Table."

Long-Term Incentive Compensation. Long-term incentives are provided through stock option grants and other stock-based awards under the Bonus Plan. Awards under the Bonus Plan are designed to further align the interests of each executive officer with those of the shareholders and provide each officer with a significant incentive to manage the Company from the perspective of an owner with an equity stake in the Company's business.

Compensation of the Co-Chief Executive Officers. Pursuant to the terms of each of their employment agreements entered into at the time of the IPO, Maurice Marciano and Paul Marciano each receive a base salary of $900,000 per year. Their annual target bonus under the Bonus Plan is equal to 100% of each of their base salaries. Messrs. Marciano, major shareholders in the Company, have not been granted any options to purchase shares of Common Stock. Messrs. Marciano did not receive bonus payments for fiscal year 2002.

Compensation of the President and Chief Operating Officer. Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, entered into in November 2000, Carlos Alberini receives a base salary of $650,000 per year. Mr. Alberini is entitled to receive an annual bonus under the Bonus Plan, with the minimum expected target bonus to be 70% of base salary, up to a maximum bonus of 120% of base salary if the applicable performance goals are met. Mr. Alberini did not receive a bonus payment for fiscal year 2002.

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m). Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, generally provides that publicly held companies may not deduct compensation paid to certain of their top executive officers to the extent such compensation exceeds $1 million per officer in any year. However, pursuant to regulations issued by the Treasury Department, certain limited exceptions to Section 162(m) apply with respect to "qualified performance-based compensation" and to compensation paid in certain circumstances by companies in the first few years following their IPO. The Company has taken steps to provide that these exceptions will apply to compensation paid to its executive officers, and the Company will continue to monitor the applicability of Section 162(m) to its ongoing compensation arrangements.

Howard Weitzman, Chairman
Anthony Chidoni
Alice Kane
