Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On March 23, 2007, Guess?, Inc. (the "Company") filed a Current Report on Form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") announcing that on March 19, 2007, the Audit Committee (the "Audit Committee") of the Board of Directors of the Company approved the dismissal of KPMG LLP ("KPMG") as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, effective upon the completion of KPMG's audit of the Company's financial statements as of and for the fiscal month transition period ended February 3, 2007.

On May 29, 2007, KPMG completed its audit of the Company's financial statements as of and for the fiscal month transition period ended February 3, 2007, and the Company's retention of KPMG as our independent registered public accounting firm ended as of that date.

The audit reports of KPMG on the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 and as of and for the fiscal month ended February 3, 2007 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles except (i) for the 2006 and for the fiscal month transition period ended February 3, 2007 audit reports which refer to the adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 (R), "Share-Based Payment" effective January 1, 2006 and the adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 158, "Employers' Accounting for Defined Benefit Pension and Other Postretirement Plans – an amendment to FASB Statements No. 87, 88, 106, and 132 (R)," as of December 31, 2006 and (ii) for the audit report for the fiscal month transition period ended February 3, 2007 which refers to the adoption of FASB Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes," effective January 1, 2007.

The audit reports of KPMG on management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting and the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006 and 2005 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles except for the 2005 report which excluded the assessment of effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting relating to Maco Apparel S.p.A., a wholly-owned subsidiary acquired during 2005, and except for the 2006 report which excluded the assessment of effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting relating to Focus Europe S.r.l., a majority-owned subsidiary acquired during 2006. The exclusions relating to Maco Apparel S.p.A. and Focus Europe S.r.l. described above were consistent with published guidance of the SEC.

During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 and through May 29, 2007, there were (1) no disagreements with KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of KPMG, would have caused KPMG to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its reports on the Company's financial statements for such periods, and (2) no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company has provided KPMG with a copy of this Form 8-K/A and requested that KPMG furnish it with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether it agrees with the statements made by the Company herein and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A letter from KPMG, dated as of June 1, 2007 regarding its concurrence with these statements, is attached hereto as Exhibit 16.1.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We were previously principal accountants for Guess?, Inc. and, under the date of February 28, 2007, we reported on the consolidated financial statements of Guess?, Inc. as of and for the years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005, management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006, and the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2006. On March 19, 2007, we were notified that Guess?, Inc. engaged Ernst & Young LLP as its principal accountant for the year ending February 2, 2008 and that the auditor-client relationship with KPMG LLP will cease upon completion of the audit of Guess?, Inc.'s consolidated financial statements as of and for the one-month transition period ended February 3, 2007 and the issuance of our report thereon. On May 29, 2007, we completed our audit and the auditor-client relationship ceased. We have read Guess?, Inc.'s statements included under Item 4.01 of its Form 8-K/A dated June 1, 2007, and we agree with such statements, except that we are not in a position to agree or disagree with Guess?, Inc.'s statement that the change was approved by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

Very truly yours,

KPMG LLP
